

2022-2023 Pennsylvania Council of Trout Unlimited

Trout in the Classroom Grant Program

Application Deadline: May 1, 2022

PA Council of Trout Unlimited (PATU) is pleased to announce that grant funding is available to teachers and program partners that are currently participating in the Trout in the Classroom (TIC) program and those wishing to start a new TIC program.

About the Trout in the Classroom Grant Program

What?	PATU can provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Up to $500 in funding for aquarium equipment and supplies, fishing and fly-tying equipment and supplies, TIC curriculum support materials, and release day/field trip expenses* (transportation and substitute teacher costs). - Replacement filters and chillers for existing programs. - Chillers for starting a new program (Grantee will be responsible for purchasing other startup materials and supplies.) *Hatchery field trips will not be funded.
Grantee Conditions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Applicant must have attended a TIC training workshop in the past or must attend one of the TIC trainings offered this year. - Applicant must utilize grant funds to continue and/or improve a current TIC program or start a new program. - Teacher must complete required PFBC forms (TIC registration and end-of-year report).

PATU TIC GRANT TIMELINE

May 1, 2022	Online grant application must be completed, and budget form emailed to Rachel Kester at PATU, by 11:59 PM.
Early May 2022	Grant awards announced.
June 30, 2022	Deadline to register with Cody Whipple at PFBC for 2022/2023 TIC program.
June 21, June 28, or July 11, 2022	Trout in the Classroom Teacher Trainings *If you have not attended training in the past, you must attend to be eligible for a grant. *You only need to attend one of the training dates.
August 2022	Grantees receive funds and/or equipment for the 2022/2023 school year.

Questions can be directed to Rachel Kester at c-rkester@tu.org or 814-359-5233.